They will appoint a committee of award, whose high character will be a sufficient guarantee that perfect fairness will control the distribution. The price of these special tickets has been fixed at the low sum or TWO DOLLARS, in order that they may be within the reach of everyone.

It is hoped and expected that the Third Annual Fair will be so successful, financially, as to enable the Society to erect suitable buildings and improve the grounds to such degree of excellence as to render them a source of pride to every citizen of Memphis, Shelby country and the adjacent country.

The Board of Directors have selected Mr. W. H. BATES to supervise this special arrangement, and tickets can be had on application to him at the Memphis and Charleston Railr and Depot, or through any of his sub-agents. sub-agenta.

JACOS THOMPSON, President,
LEON, TROUSDALE, Secretary.

SPECIAL ATTENTION

Is called to the above announcement of the President and Eo ard of Directors. There is not the lesst doubt but what all the tickets will be soid. The very low price at which they are placed—two dollars—will enable every one to contribute their mite toward beautilying the grounds of he Association, and making other improvements. This is no private enterprise, but is gotten up by the Board of Directors—whose nigh standing as public-spirited and energetic citizens cannot be questioned—for the sole purpose of benefit ing the public, by adding to the beauty of their fair grounds.

The tickets entitle the holders to admission to the Fair on that day, if those holding them choose to attend, and a chance in four hundred and eighty-one cash premiums, ranging from $1000 down.

The number of tickets is limited to $10,000, and under no circumstances will more than that mamber be sold. four attention is called to the names of the lowing gentlemen, who compose the following gentlemen, who compose Board:

Hon. Jacob Thompson, President.

MEMPHIS, TENN. FOWLER'S EXTRACT

Dr. Fowler's Compound Extract FOR THE CURE OF

Scrofnia, Syphilis, Liver Complaint,

Constipation, Chronic Rheumatism, Biscases of the Hidneys and Bladder, and valuable remedy for the above-menknown to Materia Medica. It is perfectly of several well-known articles universally used by the best physicians; each of whichhas shown to be wanting when singly emtion, requiring time, labor and skill, so as to give the public a genuine article, which they and dangerous Patent Medicines flooding the country; and therefore enables us to warrant Fowler's Compound Extract to be the most perfect curative for diseases of the blood

have their seat in the blood-diseases which have been treated vainly for years. If the and happiness will soon return. Dr. Fow-ier's Compound sois especially uson the virus in the blood, causing in time the dis-appearance of the hide us sores, and estor-ing the skin to a healthful appearance, the eye clear and sparkling, and the whole hu-man organization becomes healthy. SYPHILIS.

This Compound is a never-falling cure for

Of all diseases which flesh is heir to, none bring so much misery, moral and prysical, as Syphilis. To all so afflicted we can trail; say this remedy will help you. Two articles found, by experience, to be peculiarly efficience for the property of the formation of the disease, are contained in this compound. We sake you to try Dr. Fowler's Compound Extract, and, by giving it a fair trial, it will care you.

We sponk with much confidence of Dr. Fowler's Compound for the weak who we know what it is composed of, and what it will do. We know it. Fowler well, who is a physician of known repute, standing second to note in the country, of long experience, an henorable man, who, having a reputation for character, as well as ourselves, would never ablow a medicine to go before the public without merit. And we say of this Compound, if taken according to directions, after a fair trial, it will do all we claim for it.

We offer it as a new discovery, which it certainly is—a genuine article for Scrotnia, Syphilis and all blood impurities; and knowing the genuiticness of it, as such we send it forth, saying, "Go, Heal the Schfering:"
